The 2009 Powhatan County Labor Day Parade's Color Guard

The 2009 Powhatan County Labor Day Parade, pictured above and below, was a great success. Once again, the Powhatan Troop had the honor of acting as the Color Guard. So many marched that we had to form two lines.

This year our Camp had a booth set up at the Court House lawn.

The Cannon Report/Commander's Comments

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to everyone that helped make this year's Camp participation in the Parade a great success. The citizens of Powhatan that turn out in great numbers to participate or enjoy these events can't help but leave with a sense of their southern heritage being preserved by our Camp's presence. I had chills as we marched along to the applause of the spectators as we passed in review.

The September meeting will be on the 27th at the Village Garden Café; luncheon at 1:00 and meeting at 2:00. The cost of the lunch will be $10.00. I have not scheduled a speaker, being that this is our first meeting since the summer break. We have some business to discuss and need to plan the annual October Muster Day program.

I have been asked to remind camp members that have not mailed their SCV yearly dues to our Camp Adjutant, John Moody, to please do so immediately. You must mail it with the renewal form that you received in the mail back in June/July. If you did not receive the form or have lost it please contact John at 804-598-8589. John must have your dues with the form no later than October 25th in order to forward it to HQ no later than October 31st. After that date there is an additional $5 fee.

I have included some additional pictures taken at the Labor Day Parade
